Stop The Theft Of Your Software And eBooks

Are you one of the thousands of people who sell downloadable products such as software and ebooks? If so, are you doing all you can to protect your products from hackers and thieves?

Listen, if your products are not protected, you are losing potential sales each and every day. You've worked way too hard to let that happen. So let's put a stop to it right now!

Check this out:

DL Shield - Download Link Protection Software

DL Shield offers a quick and easy way to create automatic expiring links! This means your customer receives a special link to your thank you page that only works for a limited time (24 hours or 48 hours or any time you want).

After this period of time, the link is automatically disabled, making it impossible for hackers, thieves, and search engines to trace and steal your downloadable products. DL Shield is very easy to set up. It can be used on ordinary HTML web pages and on WordPress blogs. DL Shield works with all payment services.

And at a only $9.95, it will pay for itself in no time at all!
